Activity 1:

Choose five things and create a museum display about you! In museums this is called “curating” and the person who does it is called the “curator”. Be a curator by choosing five things from around your house and create a museum display about you!

What do these artifacts tell others about you?

Activity 2:

Once you pick up your belongings from school this week, curate a show of your work! Choose 8-10 items that show how much you have learned and grown this year! Invite your family to view the show and give them a guided tour!!
