

Paper Bag Poncho

What You Need:

- Large Paper Grocery Bags
- Bright markers
- Paints
- Crayons
- Paint brushes and water

What You Do:

1. Cut a hole in a paper bag so that your or your child's head can fit through.
2. Cut slits up both sides of the bag.
3. Decorate the paper bag poncho with brightly colored markers or paints or crayons.
4. Try a water paint wash technique, whereby you draw on the paper with crayons and paint a light wash of paint over top.
5. You can also glue bits of fabric scraps onto the paper bag as well.

Fabric Poncho

What You Need:

- 3 ft square of blanket or heavy fabric or old bed sheets
- scissors
- waterproof fabric makers

What You Do:

1. Fold the fabric in half.
2. Cut a v-shaped slit in the middle of the fold. The slit should be large enough to let your head push through it.
3. Cut fringes at the bottom of the poncho.
4. Draw geometric designs on the bottom edge.
